

Mt. Tamalpais Biodiversity Watershed Symposium:

Preservation, Extinction and Change on a Local Scale

April 11, 2008

Slide Presentations

No Longer Your Grandmother's Watershed: Global Climate Change and Designed Landscapes (Ellie Cohen, Point Reyes Bird Observatory)

Plant Communities of Mt. Tamalpais (Todd Keeler Wolf, California Department of Fish and Game)

Salmonid Trends in Redwood Creek Watershed (Brannon Ketcham, Point Reyes National Seashore)

Wildland Impacts of Invasive Wildlife (Natalie Gates, Point Reyes National Seashore)

Rare Plants of Mt. Tamalpais (Doreen Smith, CA Native Plant Society, Marin Chapter)

From Sparrows to Spotted Owls: Long Term Avian Monitoring in the Marin Municipal Water District (Tom Gardali, Point Reyes Bird Observatory Conservation Science)

The Kent Lake Osprey Colony: 40 Years of Growth and Stability (Jules Evens, Avocet Research)

Foothill Yellow Legged Frogs: Preventing a Local Extinction Event (David Herlocker, Marin County Open Space District)

Update on the Mt. Tamalpais Vegetation Management Plan (Leonard Charles, Leonard Charles & Associates)

Continued

Balancing Fire Hazard and Resource Sustainability (Jon Keeley, USGS Western Ecological Research Center)

Conflicts in the Management of Rare Archtostaphylos and Ceanothus Species in Marin (Tom Parker, San Francisco State University)

Forest Ecosystems in the Face of Sudden Oak Death and Other Diseases (Dave Rizzo, University of California, Davis)

Effects of Disease, Fragmentation and Fire Regime on Soil Mycorrhizal Diversity (Matteo Garbelotto, University of California, Berkeley)

The Long Term History of Oak Woodlands in California (Scott Mensing, University of Nevada, Reno)

Wildland Impacts of Invasive Plants (Carla Bossard, St. Mary's College)

Mt. Tamalpais in an Era of Environmental Change: The Regional Context (Stu Weiss, Creekside Center for Earth Observation)

Round Table Discussion: Novel Ecosystems vs. Preservation and Restoration on the Mt. Tamalpais Watershed (Janet Klein, Marin Municipal Water District Moderator)

Global Climate Action Sheet Handout (Point Reyes Bird Observatory)