

WATER WATCH

Marin Municipal Water District Report On Water Levels, Use & Precipitation

MMWD, serving Central and Southern Marin, reports on the following supply sources, reservoir levels, precipitation and temperature for the week ending August 29, 2010

Consumption	Average million gallons/day	Average gallons/capita/day
For Aug. 23 – Aug. 29, 2010	33.2	178.4
For same week in 2009	32.3	173.7
Storage	Acre-feet (AF)*	% of capacity
Total capacity of 7 reservoirs	79,566	100 %
Storage as of Aug. 29, 2010	67,177	84 %
Storage for this date last year	52,257	66 %
Average for this date	57,014	72 %
Our current storage (67,177 AF) is 118 % of the average storage (57,014 AF) for this date.
Supply Source	MMWD Reservoirs Average million gallons/day	Russian River Average million gallons/day
For Aug. 23 – Aug. 29, 2010	29.7	3.5
For same week in 2009	28.8	3.5
Rainfall At Lake Lagunitas (Rainfall Year Begins July 1)	Total To Date (inches)	Average Rainfall To Date
From July 1, 2010 – Aug. 29, 2010	0.00	0.14
From July 1, 2009 – Aug. 29, 2009	0.00
Temperature (at Corte Madera)	Average High Temperature (°F)
For Aug. 23 – Aug. 29, 2010	84.2
For same week in 2009	85.3
*One acre-foot equals 325,851 gallons Population of Fiscal Year 2000-2001 = 185,786		