

FOR PROFESSIONAL LANDSCAPERS

Add value to your services by providing clients with information on the most up-to-date water conservation practices and technologies. Marin Water can help!

Training Opportunities:

Qualified Water Efficient Landscaper (QWEL)

This 20 hour course is taught in English and Spanish and carries the prestigious WaterSense label from the U.S. EPA. To learn more, please visit the QWEL website.

Bay-Friendly Landscape Training & Qualification (ReScape California)

Become a recognized expert in Bay-Friendly Landscaping. Expand your business to offer cutting edge sustainable maintenance practices that enhance soil biology, reduce waste and conserve water. Learn more on their website.

American Rainwater Catchment Systems Association (ARCSA)

ARCSA is an international nonprofit organization that promotes sustainable rainwater harvesting practices and provides training and certification opportunities for professionals. Visit their website to learn more.

Irrigation Association

The Irrigation Association (IA) is dedicated to promoting efficient irrigation technologies, products, and services. IA offers a number of certification programs for professionals. Visit their website to learn more.